

SECRET*OFFICE MEMO

9 July 1964

TO : ABBP

FROM : [REDACTED] 25X1A8a

SUBJECT : Security of CS Personnel

REFERENCE : DCI Memorandum, 20 May 1964, for all employees on the Kennedy Library (unclassified)

25X1A9a

1. [REDACTED] was asked on 2 June what was meant by "ultimately" in referenced memo. He felt that lists of CS personnel probably shouldn't ever go to the Kennedy Library, or at least not for 100 years. He subsequently discussed the matter with Mr. Houston, and replied as follows on 8 July:

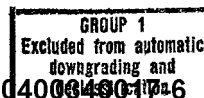

- (a) no one in the CS has to write his name when he contributes. (This is true but not very helpful - the DCI memorandum permitted CS personnel to sign their names, and the CS can't very well direct them not to.

25X1A9a [REDACTED] agreed.).

- (b) the alternative is to arrive at a policy decision by the CS and the Office of Security that CS names should not be released.

25X1A9a

2. [REDACTED] suggested that a memorandum for the Director of Security, calling Security's attention to the problem and suggesting that CS names not be released, would be in order. He felt that such a memorandum would not encounter any objection from the Director's office.
